Intro: Disability Inclusion

What is Disability Inclusion?

- Inclusion is: All people belong to:
  - Society;
  - Workplace;
  - Shops;
  - Communities
- Regardless of their gender, religion, ethnical background, sexual identity, disabilities
- Disability Inclusion is the bold focus on the last part: “People With Disabilities”
- Why: Too much forgotten group in modern vision about inclusion.

Disability Spectrum

Difficulty	Permanent	Temporary	Situational
Reading	Blindness	Eye Infection	Aging
Writing	Dyslexia	Stressed	Distracted in Public Transport
Understanding	Down Syndrome	Dementia	In a new country
Daily Life	Autism/ Down Syndrome	A Concussion	A new parent
Professional & Societal Life	Autism, ADHD	Recovering from health problem/ surgery	In a new job

Hidden & Unknown disabilities

- Undiagnosed disabilities
- Difficulties you never experienced (overprotection, family as job giver)
- Can be a reason for burnout & severe depression

Absolutely, I can help with that! Here are some tips to help you make a great impressi

1. Warm Greeting: Start with a warm smile and a firm handshake. A simple "Hello, i long way.
2. Introduce Yourself: If you're meeting someone for the first time, introduce yours mention of your connection to the host, like "Hi, I'm [Your Name], [Partner's Nam
3. Engage in Small Talk: Have a few conversation starters ready. You can comment ask about their interests. For example, "This venue is lovely, have you been here be [Host's Name]?"
4. Be Attentive: Show genuine interest in the conversation. Nod, smile, and ask follow-up q you're engaged.
5. Mingle: Try to move around and talk to different people. This shows you're sociable and interested to know everyone.
6. Compliments: A sincere compliment can break the ice. It could be about their outfit, the event, or something

That's okay! Small talk can be challenging for many people. Here are some tips to help you f comfortable:

1. Prepare Topics: Think of a few general topics in advance, like recent movies, books give you a starting point.
2. Ask Open-Ended Questions: Questions that require more than a yes or no answe flowing. For example, "What do you enjoy most about your job?" or "Have you tr recently?"
3. Listen Actively: Show interest in what the other person is saying. Nod, make ey follow-up questions or comments.
4. Share a Little About Yourself: When appropriate, share a bit about your own exp make the conversation more balanced and engaging.
5. Use the Environment: Comment on the party, the food, or the music. For example, "T delicious, have you tried them?" or "This music is great, do you know who the artist is?"
6. Practice: Like any skill, small talk gets easier with practice. Try having brief conversations with encounter in daily life, like baristas or store clerks.

Remember, it's perfectly fine to have brief pauses in conversation. People appreciate genuine interest and "I am bad at small talk"…

ALT-texts

There is really NO excuse me not having ALT-text on your website as a business.

Sure! Here's how you can add ALT text to an image on your WordPress website:

1. Log in to your WordPress Dashboard:
   - Go to your website's login page (usually `yourwebsite.com/wp-admin`) and enter you
2. Navigate to the Media Library:
   - On the left-hand side menu, click on Media and then Library.
3. Select the Image:
   - Find the image you want to add ALT text to and click on it. This will open the
4. Add the ALT Text:
   - In the Attachment Details pane, you will see a field labeled Alt Text. Enter yo For example:
     - "A cup of Illy brand coffee served on a saucer, accompanied by a single-serv biscuit, and a creamer packet on a metal serving tray, presented on a dark table
5. Save Your Changes:
   - Once you've entered the ALT text, click the Save button to apply the changes.
6. Update Your Post/Page:

To enhance the contrast, you could:

1. Darken the text on the secondary button to black or a darker shade of grey.
2. Lighten the background of the secondary button to a lighter shade, or even white, to make the t
