Dennie's Life

As a Child at school

- Being Bullied
- School for children with learning disabilities
- Low level of education

Autism

- Official Diagnose
- Finally, we know...
- And things will get better...

Trauma

Autism supportive school

- Hurray! Learning a profession I don't want to do
- Strict planning
- Limit computer hours?

9.m.	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat	Sun	Mon	Tu

16yo: Programmers dream

- Just as my friend
- Looking up
- Brought a book
- 'Not possible'
 - If you asked my teachers

19yo: FriYAY

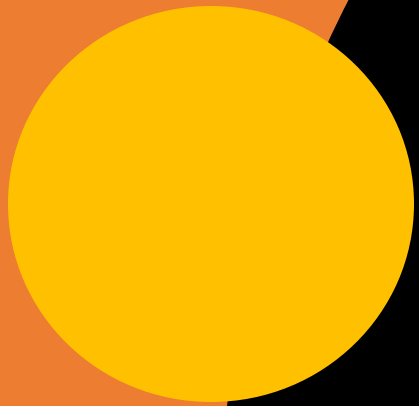

- Programming courses
 - Adult education
 - Friday Evening
- At work
 - Bullied
 - Bullied
 - Bullied
 - AGAIN!

Early 20's: Life as a volunteer

- Start to live
- Got opportunities
- Used them
- Still very humble

What we Thought

Agenda

WRONG!

More Activities = Less bad thoughts

Always Everywhere

WRONG!

More Activities = Less bad thoughts

Travel

WRONG!

This picture = External stimuli killing internal stimuli

Hmm.....

... What should I say

Home Sweet Home

A vibrant street scene in Brussels, Belgium. In the foreground, a man in a striped shirt plays a saxophone, while another man in a pink shirt plays a drum. A crowd of pedestrians, including a man in a white t-shirt taking a photo, moves through the scene. In the background, there are historic buildings with balconies and street signs for 'SQUARE ROZAR', 'MONT DES ARTS', and 'Gare Centrale'. A red awning of a cafe is visible on the left.

Awesome: “Being alone in-between other people!”

Enough Time for Yourself

Work-Life-Balance

Then COVID19 Came

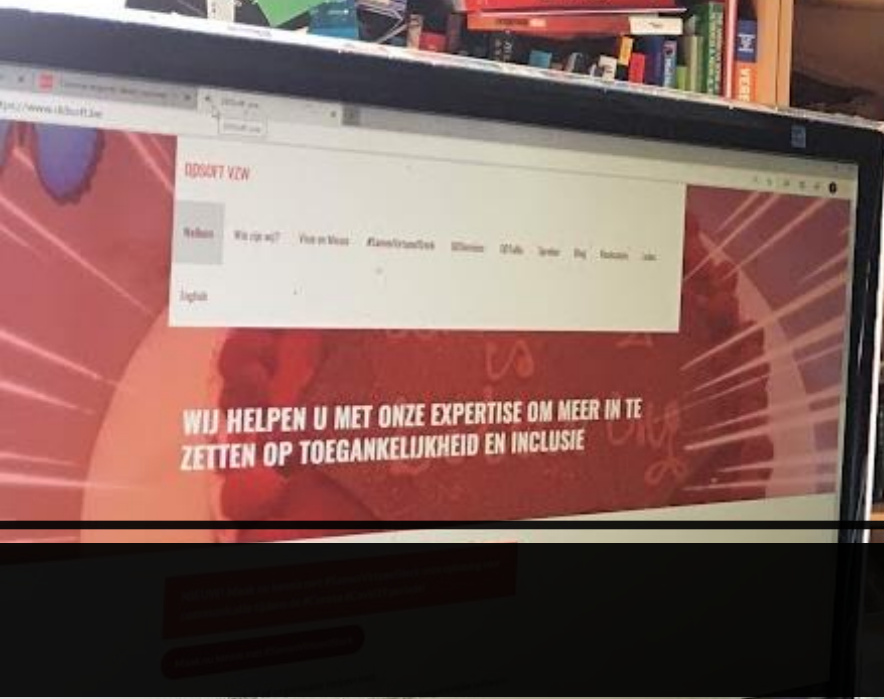

Stimuli

- NEED to have
- PURE Energy

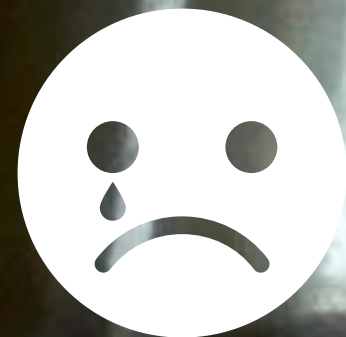

Anxiety

Oppression?

The longer COVID19-Times The worse...

NOT POSSIBLE

Harmonizer

What was always missing

Recognition

- As a child: Different education
 - Then the usual “Autism Advices”
 - Because those made it WORSE
- As (young) adult
 - Accepting “normal-paid-job” isn’t possible
 - Volunteering & Travelling so much

Knowledge: Extrovert Autistic People

- Most autistic individuals are Introvert
 - Research = majority
 - Introvert vs Extrovert: Different stimuli-response system

A manual

- “Pave our own road”
 - Cherry picking
- Slower stimuli-response system
- Slower brain-response time

After all: COVID19 made us...

Investigate our needs

- Prioritizing own needs
 - Before / During / After pandemic
- What does Dennie need?
 - Us (parents)
 - Ithaka (volunteer & client)
 - Travel
 - Loaded agenda
 - STIMULI!

Make our own manual

- Build own manual since child
- COVID19 challenged our manual
- Own individual manual is accepted more and more
- Doctors, coaches, etc. accepting this
- Everyone has own manual
 - Not only people with autism.

Be Bold. About our Vision

We are bold about this

Inspire those with less opportunities

For the haters and the lovers

Be THE ICONNOCLAST

All the other slides from our first talk ARE still TRUE
